We reserve the right to process your data after deletion of your account, execution of a sales agreement made using the "purchase without registration" option, withdrawal from a sales agreement, its termination or withdrawal of consent only to the extent necessary to assert potential claims in court or if national or EU regulations or international law oblige us to data retention.

The Administrator has the right to make your personal data available to entities authorized under applicable law (e.g. law enforcement agencies).

Deletion of your personal data may occur as a result of withdrawal of consent or by lodging a legally permissible objection to the processing of your personal data.

We have implemented pseudonymisation, data encryption and we have implemented access control so that we minimise the effects of any possible breach of data security.

Personal data is processed only by persons authorised by us or by processors with whom we cooperate closely.

§ 4 Cookies

The website <https://megliodesign.com> / uses cookies. These are small text files sent by a web server and stored by your computer software. When the browser used reconnects to the site, the site recognizes the type of device from which the user connects. The parameters allow the information contained in them to be read only by the server which created them. Cookies therefore facilitate the use of previously visited sites.

The information collected relates to the IP address, the type of browser used, the language, the type of operating system, the internet service provider, the time and date information, the location, and the information sent to the website via the contact form.

We use the information we collect to monitor and review how visitors use our sites, to improve our shop operations and to provide a more efficient and seamless navigation experience. We monitor user information using server log files (see § 5), which records user behaviour on the site.

Cookies identify the user so that the content of the site they are using can be tailored to their needs. By remembering your preferences, it enables us to tailor the advertising targeted at you. We use cookies to ensure the highest standard of comfort in our shop, and the data collected is used only within the company running the shop to optimise operations.

On our website we use the following cookies: session cookies and temporary and permanent cookies saved on your hard drive.

Cookies are used to:

a) enable the use of services available within the shop, e.g. authentication cookies used for services requiring authentication within the shop;

b) Ensure safety, e.g. used to detect abuse of authentication in the shop;

c) enable the collection of information on the manner of using shop websites;

d) make it possible to "remember" the user's selected settings and personalize the user's interface, e.g. as regards the chosen language or region of origin of the user, font size, appearance of the website, etc;

e) make it possible to provide users with advertising content more tailored to their interests.

The User may, at any time, disable or restore the option to collect cookies by changing the settings in their web browser.

§ 5 Log files

During visits to the shop's websites, data on the user's behaviour are made available, which are saved in log files - so called server log files. This creates sets of data including the following (date and time of the download, name of the accessed page, IP address, URL of the reference page from which the user was redirected, amount of data downloaded, as well as information about the product version of the Internet browser used). The indicated log file data records are used to ensure server security.

§ 6. Change of privacy policy.

We reserve the right to change the content of this privacy policy, in particular due to the continuous development of IT technology.
